

NOW PAC ENDORSES QUENTIN ANTHONY ANDERSON FOR CONGRESS IN LOUISIANA'S 6TH DISTRICT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 8, 2024

BATON ROUGE, La. — The National Organization for Women Political Action Committee (NOW PAC) has officially endorsed Quentin Anthony Anderson in his bid for Congress in Louisiana's newly drawn 6th District. This significant endorsement highlights Anderson's unwavering commitment to gender equality, reproductive rights, and social justice.

"I am thrilled to receive the endorsement of NOW PAC," said Anderson. "This endorsement underscores our shared commitment to advancing women's rights, economic justice, and equality. Together, we will fight to ensure that every person, regardless of gender, has the opportunity to thrive."

"Quentin's advocacy for equality, economic justice, and choice is exactly what Louisiana needs at this time," said NOW PAC Chairwoman Christian F. Nunes. "We cannot continue going backwards and Quentin Anderson is committed to fighting for a safe future for women."

NOW PAC's endorsement is a testament to Anderson's dedication to the following key issues:

- Reproductive Rights and Justice: Anderson has been a vocal advocate for protecting access to safe and legal abortion, contraception, and comprehensive healthcare. His stance aligns with NOW's mission to safeguard reproductive freedoms and ensure equity in healthcare.
- Economic Justice: Anderson supports the Paycheck Fairness Act and raising the federal minimum wage to a living wage. He advocates for policies that provide paid family leave and affordable childcare, which are crucial for achieving economic stability for women and families.
- Ending Violence Against Women: Anderson is committed to strengthening the Violence Against Women Act and ensuring that survivors have access to comprehensive support services, including safe housing, legal assistance, and mental health care.
- Racial Justice: Anderson's campaign is dedicated to dismantling systemic racism and promoting policies that address racial disparities in education, healthcare, and economic opportunity. He emphasizes the importance of criminal justice reform and equitable access to resources for communities of color.
- LGBTQIA+ Rights: Anderson advocates for the Equality Act and inclusive policies that protect LGBTQIA+ individuals from discrimination in employment, housing, and public accommodations. He supports efforts to address health disparities and promote affirming healthcare services for the LGBTQIA+ community.

- Constitutional Equality: Anderson strongly supports the Equal Rights Amendment, which aims to enshrine gender equality in the Constitution, ensuring that all individuals have equal protection under the law.
- Centering Women in Political and Policy Conversations: Anderson is committed to elevating women's voices in political and policy discussions, ensuring that their perspectives and experiences inform decision-making processes.
- Intersectional Feminism: Anderson conducts his political work through an intersectional feminist lens, recognizing that the experiences of women are diverse and interconnected with other identities such as race, sexuality, and economic status.

This endorsement from NOW PAC reflects the growing momentum and support for Anderson's campaign. As he continues to advocate for bold change and fresh leadership, Anderson remains focused on delivering results for the people of Louisiana.

###

About NOW PAC

Since 1977, the National Organization for Women Political Action Committee (NOW PAC) has worked to elect more uncompromising feminists to the White House and Congress. NOW PAC's aggressive grassroots organizing and early support for feminist candidates have been changing the faces of those elected to federal office. For more information, visit <https://www.nowpac.org/>

About Quentin Anthony Anderson

For more information about Quentin Anthony Anderson's campaign, please visit Anderson2024.org. For follow ups and additional information, email contact@anderson2024.org or call (225) 317-9503.